The stone for these pavements, as also the pavements in front of the McLure House, was brought here from a point opposite Beuna Vista, down the river, by Mr. Rosenburg, and cost something like thirty cents per square foot. Now, however, Mr. Rosenburg has made a discovery which will reduce the cost of the pavement about one-half. He has found up Caldwell's Itan the same kind of stone as that brought from Buena Vista, and the quality is justang good. He has made arrangements with Capt. Andrew Wilson to have the stone sawed and properly dressed at his saw mill in South Wheeling, and will be able to furnish it at the rate of eleven cents per square foot, and lay it for four for the stone save are sevented. Fortunately none of the men on the trains were injured, and their escape is considered as something wonderful.
